Hannah Ferber

Hannah Ferber is a singer/songwriter from Petaluma, California and a student at the Berklee College of Music in Boston. Characterized by poetic lyrics and creative melody lines, Hannah's music has the familiar sound of pop music but with an organic and soulful twist. Artists that inspired this sound include Joni Mitchell, Stevie Wonder, The Beatles, and Fiona Apple.

Having been surrounded by musicians in the family, Hannah wrote her first song at age two; a tragedy called "Sarah Sue" written about her runaway cat. At age twelve she began accompanying herself on the piano and performing at local talent shows. Now, at age 20, she spends her time writing and performing around Boston and the San Francisco Bay area.
